POLICIES AND PROCEDURES FOR CONSTITUTIONAL TAKING ISSUES

§ 36.01 PURPOSE.

The purpose of this subchapter is to provide advisory guidelines for the town to assist the town and its citizens in identifying actions that involve potential or actual physical taking or exaction of private real property in order to assure that constitutional taking issues are addressed.

(Prior Code, § 16-100)

§ 36.02 DEFINITIONS.

For the purpose of this subchapter, the following definitions shall apply unless the context clearly indicates or requires a different meaning.

CONSTITUTIONAL TAKING ISSUES. Actions involving the physical or regulatory taking of private real property by the town that might require compensation to a private real property owner under:

- (1) The Fifth or Fourteenth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States;
- (2) Article 1, § 22, of the State Constitution; or
- (3) Any recent court rulings governing the physical or regulatory taking of private real property by a governmental entity.

GOVERNMENTAL ENTITY. Any entity organized and acting on behalf of the town.
(Prior Code, § 16-200)

§ 36.03 GUIDELINES.

(A) The following guidelines shall be considered by the town when taking any action that might result in the physical or regulatory taking of private real property.

(B) The town should review the following to determine and identify whether a proposed governmental action raises constitutional taking issues:

- (1) Does the action result in a permanent physical occupation of private property;
- (2) Does the action require a property owner to dedicate property or grant an easement to the town;
- (3) Does the action deprive the property owner of all economically viable uses of the property;
- (4) Does the action have a severe impact on the property owner's economic interest; and
- (5) Does the action deny a fundamental attribute of ownership.

(Prior Code, § 16-300)

§ 36.04 ANALYSIS.

(A) If the town determines that a governmental action involves constitutional taking issues, the proposed action should be reviewed by the town to analyze the possible taking and to determine the action to be taken.

(B) In reviewing the proposed action, the following factors may be analyzed:

(1) The affect the potential taking would have on the use of the value of the private property;

(2) The likelihood that the action may result in a constitutional taking;

(3) Any alternatives to the proposed action that would fulfill the town’s lawful objectives and reduce the risk of constitutional taking;

(4) The cost to the town for payment of compensation if a taking is determined;

(5) The governmental interest involved and its nexus to the potential taking; and

(6) If the action is roughly proportionate or reasonably related to the impact of any proposed development.

(Prior Code, § 16-400)

§ 36.05 APPEALS.

(A) Any owner of private property whose interest in the property is subject to a physical or regulatory taking by the town, pursuant to a final and authoritative decision or action of the town, may appeal the town’s decision or action by filing a written notice of appeal and statement of the grounds for the appeal in the Town Clerk’s office within 30 days from the date of the town’s decision or action.

(B) The Town Council or its designee shall hear all the evidence regarding the appeal and render its decision and finding in writing within 14 days from the date the appeal was filed.

(C) If the town fails to hear and decide the appeal within 14 days, the town’s decision is presumed to be approved.

(Prior Code, § 16-500)

§ 36.06 LIMITATIONS.

The guidelines set forth herein are advisory only and shall not be construed to expand nor limit the scope of the town’s liability for a constitutional taking. The town shall have no legal liability to any person, firm or entity of any nature whatsoever and a court may not impose liability upon the town for failure to comply with the provisions of this subchapter.

(Prior Code, § 16-600)

(3) Notifying the requester that it does not maintain the record and providing, if known, the name and address of where the record can be found; or

(7) Segregating information that the requester is entitled to inspect from information that the requester is not entitled to inspect requires extensive editing; or

(8) Segregating information that the requester is entitled to inspect from information that the requester is not entitled to inspect requires computer programming.

(E) If one of the extraordinary circumstances listed in division (D) above precludes approval or denial within the time specified in division (B) above, the following time limits apply to the extraordinary circumstances.

(1) For claims under division (D)(1) above, the governmental entity currently in possession of the record shall return the record to the originating entity within five business days of the request for the return unless returning the record would impair the holder's work.

(2) For claims under division (D)(2) above, the originating town shall notify the requester when the record is available for inspection and copying.

(3) For claims under divisions (D)(3), (D)(4) and (D)(5) above, the town shall:

(a) Disclose the records that it has located which the requester is entitled to inspect;

(b) Provide the requester with an estimate of the amount of time it will take to finish the work required to respond to the request; and

(c) Complete the work and disclose those records that requester is entitled to inspect as soon as reasonably possible.

(4) For delays under division (D)(6) above, the town shall either approve or deny the request within five business days after the response time specified for the original request has expired.

(5) For delays under division (D)(7) above, the town shall fulfill the request within 15 business days from the date of the original request.

(6) For delays under division (D)(8) above, the town shall complete its programming and disclose the requested records as soon as reasonably possible.
(Prior Code, § 17-700) (Ord. 93-5, passed 11-10-1993)

§ 36.27 DENIALS.

(A) If the town denies the request in whole or part, it shall provide notice of denial to the requester either in person or by sending the notice to requester's address.

(B) The notice of denial shall contain the following information:

(1) A description of the record or portions of the record to which access was denied, provided that the description does not disclose private, controlled or protected information or records to which access is restricted pursuant to court rule, another state statute, federal statute or federal regulation, including records for which access is governed or restricted as a condition of participation in a state or federal program or for receiving state or federal funds;

(2) Citations to the provisions of this subchapter, another state statute, federal statute, court rule or federal regulation that exempt the record or portions of the record from disclosure, provided that the citations do not disclose private, controlled or protected information;

(3) Statement that the requester has the right to appeal the denial to the Town Council; and

(4) A brief summary of the appeals process, and the time limits for filing an appeal.

(C) Unless otherwise required by a court or agency of competent jurisdiction, the town may not destroy or give up custody of any record to which access was denied until the period for an appeal has expired or the end of the appeals process, including judicial appeal.

(Prior Code, § 17-800) (Ord. 93-5, passed 11-10-1993)

(3) Final opinions, including concurring and dissenting opinions, and orders that are made by the town in an administrative, adjudicative or judicial proceeding except that if the proceedings were properly closed to the public, the opinion and order may be withheld to the extent that they obtain information that is private, protected or controlled;

(4) Final interpretation of statutes or rules by the town unless classified as protected as provided in § 36.31(O), (P) and (Q);
